vinos con espíritu

ARGENWINE S.L. was born with the purpose of representing and commercializing a careful selection of labels of diverse wine ventures with soul, wines with spirit, where there is a great story to tell behind each one of them. In this search we combine projects from different regions and a multiplicity of terroirs, especially from Spain and Argentina.

Argenwine currently imports and distributes the wines of the Mendoza winery Durigutti Family Winemakers and markets those of the small winery from Galicia under the D.O. Ribeiro, Castrelo das Pedras.

We invite you to get to know each of our wines with spirit.

Two brothers with the same philosophy.

OUR ORIGIN

The winery was founded in 2002 as a joint project of brothers Héctor and Pablo Durigutti, both winemakers from Mendoza. Located in the heart of Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo, it combines winemaking knowledge and applied technology, and always works with the permanent search for the expression of origin. This is what motivates them to explore the land, interpret the local character and produce high quality wines. Since the beginning, the brands that make up the portfolio of Durigutti Family Winemakers are available in Argentina and in different international markets.

MENDOZA

LAS COMPUERTAS
LUJÁN DE CUYO

The genuine spirit and style of the initial project.

THE YOUNG EXPRESSION OF MENDOZA DURIGUTTI

It represents the expression of Mendoza's terroir, with selected grapes from different old vineyards at the foot of the Andes Mountains, irrigated with natural snowmelt water. With the maximum expression of the fruit, they are young and natural wines, without fining, filtering or stabilization.

DURIGUTTI Bonarda

In homage to the second most planted grape variety in Argentina, 100% varietal, it vindicates Bonarda with grapes from different terroirs in Mendoza (Agrelo and Ugarteche), seeking full fruit on the palate and nose.

DURIGUTTI Malbec

A blend of Malbec from Luján de Cuyo and Uco Valley vineyards dating from 1928 to 1948, this is an aromatic, medium-bodied wine with good fruit.

DURIGUTTI RESERVA

With a successful balance between fruit and oak, these wines are made without fining, filtering or stabilization. In this way, the best of the terroir and the aging structure are obtained to evolve and give full, complex, tasty wines that express each varietal.

DURIGUTTI Reserva Malbec

A good combination of grapes from the valley, La Consulta and Altamira, and another from Luján de Cuyo, make up this medium-bodied Malbec with fine tannins and a fruity character.

A tribute to the family.

DURIGUTTI FAMILIA

It is the first wine that the Durigutti brothers made together in the winery. Since 2002 it has been the icon of the house, a tribute to the family and to the wines for cellaring and collection.

DURIGUTTI FAMILIA

A complex 85% Malbec wine with grapes from Luján de Cuyo (Lunlunta and Agrelo) and Valle de Uco (La Consulta, Vistaflares, Gualtallary and Altamira), this is a premium wine with great cellaring potential. With time in the glass, multiple layers of aromas and flavors are discovered with the contribution of prolonged aging in French oak foudres.

Finca Victoria - Las Compuertas

TO THE RESCUE OF A PEOPLE AND A LAND WITH HISTORY PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS

The maximum interpretation of the soils with the minimum intervention of man. A life project that aims to rescue an origin with valuable history and turn it into a legacy for the next generations.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS Malbec 1914

Obtained from clay soils, typical from Las Compuertas, this wine was named after the year the vineyard was planted. There is more than 100 years of life in this bottle of wine. It's fermented in concrete eggs and later aged in 2000 liter oak fudre.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS Malbec 5 Suelos

After the precise soil composition study was completed, 5 wines were defined resulting from the 5 different soil profiles. Each wine is made in separate concrete eggs and then a final blend is determined.

It all began in 2007 with the first five hectares of an old Malbec vineyard that the brothers acquired a few steps from the winery, on Callejón de la Reta.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS Cabernet Franc

"This wine comes from an old vineyard in the estate selected and replanted at high density in sand loam soils with deep gravel, and is fermented in concrete eggs without epoxy. Elegant and well-balanced.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS Charbono

This Charbono (Bonarda) grape –the first planted in the Las Compuertas IG—comes from deep stony loam soils, and is fermented in concrete eggs without epoxy. Fleshy, tasty, and velvety.

Since then, a path of recovery and revaluation of the history and traditions of an emblematic wine region of Lujan de Cuyo began: Las Compuertas.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS Criolla Chica

Criolla chica (creole), a hundred-year-old vine planted free standing at Finca Victoria, to continue a heritage rescue labor and enhancement of wines with history, made specifically with native yeasts.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS Cordisco

Originally planted as an experimental plot within the vineyard, the first wines were made from this varietal originating from Abruzzo (Italy). The wine was fermented in concrete eggs with native yeasts.

Over the years, more hectares were added to the project, today 34, and they named this place after their mother, Finca Victoria. This work seeks to support the development of local producers who proudly maintain their vineyards in the face of the unstoppable advance of urbanization.

PROYECTO LAS COMPUERTAS
Blanco de Finca

Experimental estate white, an organic bivarietal based on Marsanne and Semillón as the first white wine of the Las Compuertas GI.

The land where they were born

WINES THAT VINDICATE THE VARIETIES OF EASTERN MENDOZA.

Cara Sucia is a return to the origins, to the land where the Durigutti brothers were born, where they spent their childhood with many happy moments. Like those stories on the table and those little things that reconnect us with the place where we come from, so are these wines, simple and enjoyable. A journey through time and a new look at the varieties of eastern Mendoza, another face of Argentine winemaking.

CARA SUCIA Criolla

A fresh red wine from Rivadavia, it comes from an old 1940's criolla grande (cherry) vineyard and is vinified in cement eggs, partly with marc and partly without, as if it were a white wine. The result is a very drinkable wine, with gentle tannins, good acidity and aromas that combine red fruits and dried herbs.

CARA SUCIA Cepas Tradicionales

Co-fermented red of Italian varieties combines aromas of red fruits, dried herbs and rosemary. On the palate the tannins are friendly and fruity with a marked acidity. A modern style to reinterpret tradition.

CARA SUCIA Blanco Legítimo

Typical white wine of traditional varieties. Yellow color with greenish glints, with citrus aromas of grapefruit, orange peel and fresh herbs. Refreshing on the palate with unctuousness and persistence.

A link between Galicia and Argentina

THE OLD WORLD WINEMAKING TRADITION INTERPRETED THROUGH THE EYES OF THE NEW WORLD

D.O. RIBEIRO

EIn a small corner of Ribeiro, Galicia, a new dream of Héctor and Pablo Durigutti comes true. Here they began their first steps as foreign winemakers touring the village of As Bouzas, Castrelo de Miño (Ourense) in 2014, tasting its wines and getting to know the philosophy of this place. In 2016, marveling at the potential of the vineyards, they bought the first lands and an old stone house originally from 1836, which once knew to be a family winery. In 2017 they harvested grapes for the first time and began the process of recovery and restoration of the property to turn it into the new winery: Castrelo Das Pedras 1836.

This initial vision of the Durigutti brothers was joined in 2017 by Italian winemaker Attilio Pagli, with whom Héctor shared years of work and experience, and local businessman and winegrower Francisco Cernadas, both of whom were instrumental in the materialization of this venture.

ESPAÑA > GALICIA > ORENSE > CASTRELO DE MIÑO > AS BOUZAS

Village wines

Raíces del Miño, pays tribute to the communal work of the family smallholdings that give shine and value to an ancient Galician winemaking tradition. Villages of very few inhabitants, small stone villages surrounded by vineyards and terraced views towards the zigzagging course of the Miño river, which together with the Avia and the Arnoia define different valleys in the Ribeiro region and produce wines of exceptional quality.

RAÍCES DEL MIÑO Treixadura, D.O. Ribeiro

Made 100% from the queen of Ribeiro whites, this pale yellow with greenish tones is deep on the nose with lots of white route and flowers, and flows on the palate with tense acidity rich in freshness.

RAÍCES DEL MIÑO Cepas Autóctonas, D.O. Ribeiro

This blend of white grapes achieves a perfect integration of traditional grape varieties with local character. Pale yellow in color with greenish tones, it is aromatically intense with notes of fresh citrus, stone fruit, green apple and pineapple. The palate is medium-bodied, slightly oily, with a firm acidity that defines its freshness.
